DukeNet Communication Services, LLC Announces Completion of Ohio Tower Site for NTELOS

DukeNet Communication Services, LLC (“DNCS”) announces the completion of its second communication tower site for NTELOS located near Lucasville, Ohio. NTELOS is a regional wireless carrier operating a CDMA network in Virginia, West Virginia, and portions of Kentucky and Ohio. Headquartered in Waynesboro, VA, NTELOS has a strategic network alliance with Sprint-Nextel.

The Lucasville East tower is a 250’ self support structure located at 1028 Burns Road, Lucasville, Ohio (N38 51 21, W082 55 52). The tower is designed to the EIA/TIA 222-G standard and can accommodate three additional wireless carriers.

“DNCS is glad to partner with NTELOS for another communication tower” said Max Lind, DNCS Manager of Sales and Business Development. “The new tower is complementary to our existing tower portfolio and enhances NTELOS coverage near Lucasville, Ohio.”

For leasing information please contact Stephanie Shepherd, Business Development Representative, via phone at (513) 287-5761 or email at Stephanie.Shepherd@duke-energy.com.
