KEOWEE-TOXAWAY DROUGHT MANAGEMENT ADVISORY GROUP
INFORMATIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING
Wednesday, April 23, 2014
AGENDA

Board Room
Anderson Regional Joint Water System
998 Hunters Trail
Anderson, SC  29625
Dress is business casual

9:30 AM  Light breakfast snacks and coffee available.

10:00 AM  Welcome, Safety Message, Introductions, Agenda Review, and Announcements
   Ken Kearns, Facilitator, Kearns & West, Inc.

   Overview – Keowee-Toxaway Hydro Project Relicensing
   Jen Huff, Keowee-Toxaway Project Relicensing Manager, Duke Energy

   Water Supply Study – Savannah River Basin Water Withdrawals, Returns, and Overall Use Projected to 2066
   Jonathan Williams, Assistant Project Manager, HDR Engineering, Inc.

   Savannah River Water Quantity Models – CHEOPS™ and HEC-ResSim
   Chris Ey, Senior Professional Associate, HDR Engineering, Inc.

   Keowee-Toxaway Hydro Project’s New Low Inflow Protocol (Drought Plan)
   Ed Bruce, Lead Engineer, Duke Energy

   Georgia Water Planning and Drought Response
   Nap Caldwell, Manager, Water Supply, Watershed Protection Branch, Georgia
   Environmental Protection Division

12:00 N  Lunch

12:45 PM  South Carolina Drought Response
   Hope Mizzell, South Carolina State Climatologist
KEOWEE-TOXAWAY DROUGHT MANAGEMENT ADVISORY GROUP
INFORMATIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING
Wednesday, April 23, 2014
AGENDA

Status of the US Army Corps of Engineers’ Savannah River Basin Comprehensive Study
Stan Simpson, Water Manager, US Army Corps of Engineers

Keowee-Toxaway Drought Management Advisory Group (KT-DMAG) – Purpose and Functions
Ken Kearns, Facilitator

Catawba-Wateree Drought Management Advisory Group Experiences during the 2007-2009 period-of-record drought
Mike Bailes, Plant Manager, Catawba River Water Treatment Plant

KT-DMAG Organizational Topics
Ken Kearns, Facilitator

Next Steps for the KT-DMAG

3:00 PM     Adjourn