

2019 WORKFORCE GRANTS | SOUTH CAROLINA

Duke Energy is providing over $150,000 in support to nonprofit organizations through our Powerful Communities: Workforce program. These grants, provided by the Duke Energy Foundation, will help enhance and diversify the energy industry's workforce of tomorrow.

ORGANIZATION	SERVICE	LOCATION
Florence Darlington Technical College Women and Minorities in Engineering Tech Leadership Program	A strategic effort to recruit and retain women and minorities in the field of engineering technology through a mentorship program that pairs students with leaders in the engineering field.	Florence
SC Independent Colleges and Universities Duke Energy Engineer Scholars Program	Nine $5,000 scholarships will be provided to junior or senior engineering students at qualifying independent colleges and universities in Duke Energy's service areas.	Anderson, Abbeville, Greenville, Sumter, Newberry, Laurens & Spartanburg
Tri County Technical College Minority, Women and Veteran recruitment program	A strategic marketing program aimed at increasing women, minorities and veterans pursuing a degree in General Engineering Technology, Industrial Electronics Technology and Mechatronics.	Anderson
Clover School District Lineworker Certification Program	A first of its kind in the state, the program is a partnership with York Technical College, Clover School District and York District 1 to implement a lineworker certification program for high school students.	York