

2019 WORKFORCE GRANTS | INDIANA

Duke Energy awarded grants totaling $103,397 to organizations throughout Indiana. The grants, from the Duke Energy Foundation, support workforce education and training programs that prepare future workers to develop innovative solutions for the energy industry's most pressing challenges.

ORGANIZATION

SERVICE

LOCATION

Crossroads Rehabilitation Center
Energy Industry Workforce`

Easter Seals Crossroads, through our Workforce Development Program, will provide a map of skills, education and training to individuals with disabilities seeking potential careers in the energy industry

Hancock-Shelby counties

Indiana University Board of Trustees
IU Kokomo's KEY to workforce development

The KEY (Kokomo Experience and You) provides all our undergraduate students with scores of opportunities to immerse themselves in business and nonprofit enterprises.

Cass-Whitley counties

Tippecanoe School Corporation
Greater Lafayette Career Academy Engineering

Students gain industry experience through placements with partner organizations and earn college credits.

Tippecanoe County

Indiana State University
Vocational training in electronics and energy for high school students

Create a future workforce training to build a vocational training certificate program, providing hands-on training from electronics and energy professionals in the community.

Vigo County

Workforce Network, Inc.
Duke Energy / JAG challenge

Delivers innovative approaches to reach high school students to provide clear, efficient career pathways to key occupations in the energy sector.

Vigo County

TechnoKats
TechnoKats robotics team

Help provide funding to relocate team, equipment and practice facility from the Duke Energy Kokomo operations office to make way for office renovations.

Howard County